

László Molnárfi <molnarfl@tcd.ie>

Details - Protest on-campus of TCD on Wednesday at 5PM

Laszlo Molnarfi <molnarfl@tcd.ie>

21 September 2021 at 19:53

To: [REDACTED]

Dear All,

This is to let you know that we at Students 4 Change, a Trinity College Dublin student organization, have called for a protest on-campus for this Wednesday at 5pm, in front of the Dining Hall, to protest Trinity's botched re-opening plan. We have called this event to protest against the lack of in-person teaching and to demand for a refund of our tuition fees.

The organizers are Students 4 Change, TCD F2F, Trinity Renters' Union and other students. Labour Youth, the TCDSU, the TCDGSU and many other organizations will be there. Richard Boyd Barrett and Mick Barry are coming and will be giving speeches, they will arrive at 4:30 to the TCD main entrance. We will meet them there.

We hope that you and they will be let in. If not, that is newsworthy in itself.

We will make speeches, have an open microphone and hand over our petition and list of demands to Provost Linda Doyle personally.

Some quotes:

"We believe that Trinity has lied to us about what our academic experience would look like this year, and has consistently disregarded its students to prioritise tourists on campus" - Oisín Fullam-Smith.

"All we want is to get the education we were promised, and that's not what we are getting" - James O'Leary.

"We are sick of a system that treats us like sources of profit and not as human beings. Education is not for sale and the for-profit model of third-level institutions is clearly unsustainable" - László Molnárfi, Students 4 Change.

Best Regards,

László Molnárfi